

Flounders are green and brown flat fish that live on the sea floor. Flounders lay motionless on their side, using their color to hide from hungry predators. Both eyes are on the upper surface of its body. This allows the fish to see while remaining hidden. Crabs, fish and mollusks are the flounder's favorite foods.